

GT MOBILE- 888 FAQs

Q1. How to turn off the software running in the background?

Download Advanced Task Manager and select install. This will allow you to automatically end program services, switch between programs and display memory information. You may also uninstall programs to free up memory space. Reducing CPU's operation, increase speed and extend standby time.

Q2. How to quickly set up Email

In the Android system, you can automatically set the POP3 or IMAP e-mail for most accounts. In the e-mail settings, directly enter the e-mail address and password. If system does not recognize the e-mail entered, users may be required to manually configure their IMAP or POP3 settings.

Q3. How do I view the capacity of SD card?

In the Settings option on the Home Screen, select Storage and from there you may view the memory allocation for the SD card.

Q4. How to conserve my battery?

- Dim the brightness of your screen to reduce battery consumption. In the Settings option on the Home Screen, select Sound and Display, and configure according to your liking.
- Switch off GPS global positioning. In the Settings option, select Location Services and uncheck Enable GPS Satellite Setting.
- Turn off Wi-Fi and Bluetooth when not in use.

Q5. Why can't the USB cable connect my phone to my computer?

In Settings option, click on Developers options and swipe on USB debugging tab. Furthermore, you may check if you installed the right USB driver.

Q6. How to install a program from a non-Android market?

In the Settings options, select Security and swipe on unknown source function tab.

Q7. While browsing the web how can I switch to another application?

If you need to open another application when browsing the web, you may hold on the Home key, view and select other running applications in the background.

8. How to switch to Silent Mode?

Press and hold on the Power key and select Silent Mode when it appears on the screen.

Q8. How to forward SMS/ MMS?

Press and hold on the message you would like to forward, a short cut will appear on screen, select Forward accordingly.

Q9. My Home Screen is filled with too many widgets, how can I solve this?

You may group and sort your widgets according to Folders. To create a new folder, slide the widget onto another widget in the Home screen and a new folder will be automatically generated.

Q10. How to personalize my ringtone?

In Settings, select Notifications, and then Sound. You may change the different tone according to your liking.

Q11. How to download applications?

On the Home Screen, select Play Store and you may download any applications you like. It will appear on your Home Screen once download is completed.

Q12. How to delete the downloaded application?

You may delete downloaded applications in Settings, Manage App, and select the application you would like to delete.

Q13. How to view mobile phone version information?

The version information can be obtained in Settings, About Phone.

Q14. How do I copy SIM card contact information?

Into the Contacts application, click the menu button, select "Import Contacts", then you can see the SIM card contacts, if only to import one, you can click an item. If all the import needs to long press the menu key, select Import to import all.

Q15. Does the phone support Java?

Yes, it does.

Q16. How to open Developer options?

Within the Settings option, click on About phone five times and Developer options will be generated on screen.